I am ready to bet my hiring on the challenge of running the AACR Philadelphia Marathon (42 195m) on the 20th of November in less than 3h. My current personal best is 3h 13m 54s. The odds are not on my side, but this motivates me even more.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Riccardo Volante". The script is fluid and cursive, with the first name "Riccardo" and last name "Volante" clearly distinguishable.
